

Henkell Trocken – partner of the First German Wine Festival in Ukraine

On September 24, 2010, the First German Wine Festival in the Embassy of Germany of Ukraine was held.

Henkell Trocken, German trade mark of Henkell&Co, became one of the partners of the Festival.

Sparkling wine Henkell Trocken perfectly emphasized the spirit of the Festival, as this trade mark is regarded as the most popular in Germany. Taste of the original German Sekt (sparkling wine) was appreciated by the guests. Leading specialists of restaurant and hotel businesses, representatives of the domestic alcoholic market, members of the European Business Association and different mass media were invited to the Festival.

Samples of the German sparkling wines FÜRST VON METTERNICH Rose and FÜRST VON METTERNICH Brut were presented at the Festival. The Festival's participants presented all the guests souvenirs in the end.

We would remind that the Kiev factory of sparkling wines „Stolichniy“ is the member of Henkell&CO. Group of sparkling wines manufactures since 2007. Due to this fact the factory „Stolichniy“ gained the status of the official importer of sparkling wines from Europe to Ukraine.
